

On the wings of a buffalo, Denton Crossing takes off

12:19 AM CST on Sunday, March 7, 2010

New businesses will soon arrive in the eastern portion of Denton Crossing Center.

Buffalo Wild Wings, a national chain of sports bars, is expected to open March 22 at 1400 S. Loop 288, Suite 110.

With headquarters in Minneapolis, Buffalo Wild Wings is known for its 14 signature sauces and its New York-style buffalo wings.

According to its Web site, the franchise dates back to 1981 when a couple of guys from Kent, Ohio, decided to open a restaurant “where people could hang out, grab a beer and eat some great food.” The first location of Buffalo Wild Wings opened in 1982.

There are 655 locations in 42 states, including one in Lewisville.

DRC/Karina Ramírez

According to Jason Kasal, vice president and leasing director of Inland Western Retail Real Estate Inc., the developer of Denton Crossing Center, three other businesses are expected to open soon in the shopping center:

- an office for the American Automobile Association (AAA), which will be next to Fuddruckers;
- a J Sushi restaurant at the old Rice Boxx location;
- and a Scottrade office, which will open in the previous Nextel/Sprint space.

“We have seen a significant surge of interest in Denton Crossing over the past 90 days, and expect to announce an additional highly sought after retailer that isn’t currently in the market coming to the center soon,” Kasal said.