Real estate developer The LaSalle Group Inc. said Tuesday the company is ready to break ground on its eighth Autumn Leaves assisted living center for Alzheimer's patients in North Texas.

The new location will be in Denton at 2505 Brinker Road.

The new facility is part of the LaSalle Group's commitment to creating communities for aging adults who need quality care, the firm said Tuesday.

The company has already developed Autumn Leaves communities in Arlington, Carrollton, Flower Mound, Fossil Creek, Grapevine, McKinney, Richardson and North Garland.

Construction at the Denton facility is scheduled to be complete in February 2010.
