

Caroline Booth, MPA
Director of Economic Development, City of Denton

Caroline was named Director of Economic Development for the City of Denton in October 2016. She was Assistant Director for Economic Development from August 2015 to September 2016 after serving as interim Assistant Director beginning in March 2015. Caroline joined the City of Denton in September 2014 as the Business Development Officer for Denton Municipal Electric, bringing with her 15 years of experience in program management, communications/marketing, and resource development.

From 2011 to 2014, Caroline was Director of Communications and Marketing for University of North Texas Libraries. While at UNT, she earned an MPA in the university's nationally-ranked Department of Public Administration. Prior to that, Caroline served as Director of Advancement at Cumberland Presbyterian Children's Home in Denton and Communications Specialist at the Noble Foundation in Ardmore, Okla. She holds a Bachelor of Science from Texas A&M University and is currently attending the University of Oklahoma's Economic Development Institute.

Caroline volunteers on the Board of Trustees of Cumberland Presbyterian Children's Home in Denton. She also is a member of Denton Benefit League and a 2010 graduate of Leadership Denton.

Contact Information:

Caroline Booth, MPA
Director for Economic Development
City of Denton
215 East McKinney
Denton, TX 76201
Phone: (940) 349-7751
Email: caroline.booth@cityofdenton.com