

Fast-growing helicopter ambulance firm to move its headquarters to Denton

Fast-growing helicopter ambulance firm to move its headquarters to Denton

By | Nov 14, 2016

A fast-growing helicopter ambulance company plans to begin construction on its new headquarters and hangar near Denton Enterprise Airport, which will relocate its corporate office from Lewisville.

Air Medical Group Holdings Inc., a national helicopter ambulance company, has been quickly growing, which has been propelled by expanding health care organizations partnering with the firm, said CEO Fred Buttrell, who runs Air Medical Group and its subsidiary Med-Trans Corp.

EMAIL

