WinCo Gets New DC in Texas

By | Feb 24, 2017

WinCo Foods will officially open its $135 million, 800,000-square-foot distribution center in Denton, Texas, on Feb. 14.

First announced last June, the project represents the largest economic development project ever undertaken in Denton, in terms of both capital and size. Boise, Idaho-based WinCo currently has nine stores in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, with plans to open four stores in Oklahoma over the next year or two.
